

Some patterns of behaviour, which may suggest autism

One-sided interaction

Lack of creativity and imagination when playing

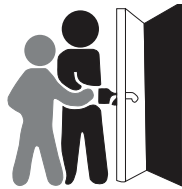

Handles or spins objects

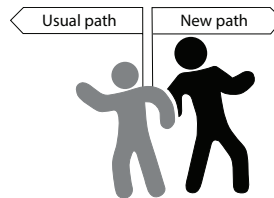

Talks constantly about the same topic

Echolalic, repeating words by rote

Expresses his/her needs by using an adult's hand

Does not like change

Laughs or giggles without a reason

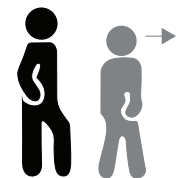

Unusual behaviour

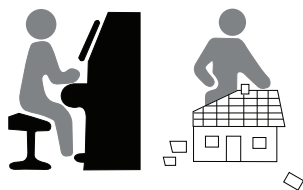

Does not participate in the games of other children

Shows indifference

No eye contact

Some can carry out certain tasks very quickly and with perfection, but without any activity involving social understanding

Joins in only if an adult insists and assists